Border to Border Trail Closed on Water Street No Trespassing Allowed

Ypsilanti, MI, April 19, 2016: The Ypsilanti City Manager has executed an order closing the Water Street Redevelopment site to any and all unauthorized persons.

The City is very interested in re-opening the Border to Border Trail located on the Water Street Site as soon as possible. This will involve follow-up environmental studies and remediation or containment work on the site. The purpose of this order is to prevent interference with this work as well as to protect persons from any danger that could result from such interference.

Pursuant to this order, the City Department of Public Services will be posting "no trespassing" signs on the site and the Ypsilanti Police Department has been directed to enforce this order.
