About WonderFool Productions:

Since 2006, WonderFool Productions has produced two signature community events each April in Ann Arbor: FoolMoon, a Friday night downtown celebration with luminaries, music, and fun interactive activities, and the FestiFools Sunday parade, where giant papier-mâché puppets and street performers dance down Main Street. As a nonprofit community-based arts organization, we set the stage for collaborative community-built public arts experiences by partnering with independent artists, libraries, schools, nonprofits, and community groups—to host and facilitate a series of creative workshops that allow people of all ages to create and play.
